

Article submission form for Missouri School Music magazine
(this form is to be included with all article requests intended for publication 2016)

Date:

Intended date for publication:

Author's name and title:

Article title:

Are charts/graphs/photographs/etc. included in separate pdf, jpeg, etc. formats? (Indicate: YES NO)

Is the article intended for use as a required officer's column or as a guest article? (Indicate: OFFICER GUEST)

Has this article appeared in other publications?

(Indicate: YES NO)

If yes, name the publication and whether or not that publication holds a copyright on this material. (The author must obtain copyright permission for re-print of the article, even if it is the author's own academic property)

Note:

Missouri School Music magazine retains ownership and all copyright privileges of manuscripts and accompanying material published in the magazine. NAFME (National Association for Music Education) allows a reciprocal agreement with all related state magazines (including Missouri's MSM) for re-printing articles. When articles from MSM are requested for re-print by another NAFME publication, a statement such as, "This article is re-printed from Missouri School Music magazine (with publication date)" is included with the re-printed article. Authors wishing to re-print articles in other future publications should request permission from the MSM editor.

Policy:

(adopted from Massachusetts Music News)

The opinions expressed in articles, news items, and updates do not necessarily represent the views of editors, the Missouri School Music magazine, or the Missouri Music Educators Association.

Articles and news items written to promote a non-affiliate organization or commercial enterprise will be treated as advertisement and redirected to the business manager.