Facebook User Policy

- The purpose of this page is to share, exchange, ask, music education related questions, ideas and content.
- Don't challenge or attack others. The discussions and comments are meant to stimulate conversation not to create contention. Let others have their say, just as you may.
- Be aware that posting more than 3 discussions on the same day needs to be justified to the group admin, or it will be considered spam.
- Don't post commercial messages on any discussion list, resource library entry, or other area where others might see it. Contact people directly with product and service information if you believe it would help them.
- Use caution when discussing products. Information posted on the lists and in the libraries is available for all to see, and comments are subject to libel, slander, and antitrust laws.
- All defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, or illegal materials are strictly prohibited. The posting of it may result in immediate termination and/or criminal prosecution. Do not post anything that you would not want the world to see or that you would not want anyone to know came from you.
- Please note carefully all items listed in the legal statement and privacy policy in Sections II & III below. By making content available, you represent and warrant that you do not infringe on proprietary rights and you have the authority to post such content on our site.
- Even though the communities are closed groups, they are not private! That means anyone can copy conversations, take screenshots, or duplicate messages that appear on a community.
- Post your message or documents only to the most appropriate lists or libraries. Do not spam several lists or libraries with the same message.
- All messages must add to the body of knowledge. We reserve the right to reject any message for any reason.
