

Conference Manager Report

- Steinway, Shh Productions, and B. Johnson Photography will fulfill the second of a two-year contract approved by the board of directors. In the summer of 2023 vendor bids will be solicited for the 2024/2025 conferences.
- The percussion provider for the 2023 conference will be KHS.
- Columbia School District will supply the risers, shells, and stands for the 2023 conference.
- Truman State University has agreed to supply the work crew for the 2023 conference.
- I will continue to assist as requested with conference scheduling, the performing ensemble director's meeting, and any other matters related to conference planning.

Respectfully submitted,

Brian Reeves
